

WHAT'S NEW

Medicine

MUSICOPHILIA

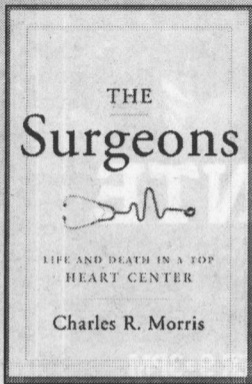

by Oliver Sacks
(Knopf, $26)

The neurologist / author of "Awakenings" explores cases of people with unusual responses to music.

SICK GIRL

by Amy Silverstein (Grove, $24)

When Silverstein had a heart transplant at age 24, she was told that she only had about 10 years to live. Nineteen years later, she's married and a mother, and now the author of this memoir.

THE SURGEONS

by Charles R. Morris (Norton, $24.95)

Morris, a journalist, spent a year behind the scenes at the heart center at Columbia-Presbyterian hospital, and in this book, he looks at thing from the doctor's perspective.